This day personally appeared before me W. H. Milton and John Milton, III, who each for themselves acknowledged to me that he signed the foregoing proposed charter of the Bank of Panama City.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 12th day of August, 1907.

(Seal)
Notary Public, State of Florida at Large.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

To facilitate the prompt and economical organization of the bank the five directors were assigned the 150 shares of stock, the same to be made over to the individual stockholders as soon as issued. To have gotten and printed each stockholders name would have required over 50 affidavits, made at various points in the state, and caused a heavy printing bill to have been published the same, with much delay. Thus this method of organizing.

R. L. MCKENZIE,
W. H. MILTON,
Committee.
